

How would you like to PLAY in the park?

What LANDSCAPE would attract more people and make Allegheny Landing a true destination?

easy to maintain
improve the view
visual promenade
multiple levels
stroll
different elevations
native wildflowers
clover lawn
grass to sit on more trees
explore
wide open space
paths lead to river
gardens
native plants w education
natural seating
lighted wayfinding
colorful
water
fountain
accessible
more green
flowers
green space
nature
shade

How would you like to experience ART in the park that can be connected to Pittsburgh's Pop District and Cultural District?

sound light texture color photographic backdrops
larger scale art
sculptural playground color link to warhol rotating art interact with sound
sound of water local kids design tiles music installations art and poetry events interactive lighting artistic installation allow everyone to paint

What ARCHITECTURAL elements would you like to see in the park?

connect to river
riverfront seating
signs pier
flat space
restrooms
accessible dock
place free of harassment something architectural no obstructions of view

PITTSBURGH RIVERWALK & CHALK FEST 2023

At Chalk Fest, Riverlife and dwg. were able to interact with large groups and discuss what they would like to see in the parks. This is where many children got creative with their clay designs!

"Pirates Slide"

- dedicated play structures
- Pittsburgh themed
- climbing
- exploring

"Squid"

- large sculpture
- blow up sculpture
- various surface types
- free play

"Rainbow Land"

- open ended play
- colorful and artistic
- trampoline
- interactive structures

"Inspirational Chair (that says nice things)"

- positive thinking
- mindfulness
- view to city or nature
- place to rest

"Pond"

- cool off
- connection to rivers
- open play for all
- calming sounds

"Butterfly"

- play sculptures
- climbing
- large scale

