FACT SHEET

Arlington Heights is a small neighborhood surrounded by the South Side Slopes and Arlington neighborhoods. It once had 660 housing units built by the Housing Authority of Pittsburgh in 1942, which at the time housed war workers, and later was turned into public housing. A large portion of these buildings was demolished in the late 1990s and early 2000s, and a portion of the barracks-style housing remains today.
